BROOKLYN TRIALS.

With the Brooklyn Handicap on for decision today, the following concerning the workouts of the horses, Thursday, will interest those concerned in the issue of the big race. A dispatch from New York says: "The scene of training operations for the Brooklyn Handicap, to be run at the Gravesend track Saturday was changed today, with one exception, from Morris Park to the tracks at Gravesend and Sheepshead Bay. The exception was the superb trial at Morris Park of Filigrane, which, with plenty of weight in the saddle, turned the mile and a half distance in 2:37. The three-year-old Spurs accompanied Filigrane for a mile, at which point the son of Galore and Fillette shook him off easily and won as he pleased. The track was fast, and the effort was one of the best ever seen at the big course.

"At Gravesend, where the majority of the Brooklyn Handicap candidates are quartered, there were several finishing touches given to the runners who are to have a shy at the stake. The track not being on the fast side, nothing sensational in the way of speed was shown.

"The fastest work of the morning at Brooklyn was furnished by the veteran trainer, Green B. Morris, when he sent Lanky Bob the mile and a quarter route in 2:09. The horse had more weight up than he is asked to carry in the handicap, and he did his task without turning a hair. A two-year-old broke with him at the start, and at the half mile he was picked up by the fast Murillo, who was beaten by the candidate at the finish by a short neck.

"Matt Allen gave Banaster his preparation in the shape of a mile and a quarter trip in 2:11, and the horse was eager for his head all the way. The good-looking California mare, Fleur de Lis, with close to 125 pounds on her back, was sent the handicap distance in 2:13. The half was turned in 0:52; five furlongs, 1:03; six furlongs, 1:17; seven furlongs, 1:32; mile, 1:46; and the mile and an eighth in 2:00.

"W. Showalter's good runner, Box, did a mile and a quarter in 2:15.

"Bromley & Co.'s Previons, which is well thought of by the trainers and railbirds who have seen him work, is quite ready for his Brooklyn Handicap effort, and covered a mile and a quarter fighting for his head all the way in 2:19.

"At Sheepshead Bay the Brooklyn Handicap candidates, which have been carefully prepared for the event, were sent along at a nice rate. Algol was asked a mile and a quarter effort in 2:12, and tired badly at the finish, and the railbirds say he will not do when the Brooklyn race is run.

"W. P. Burch sent his candidate, Thomas Cat, a mile and a quarter, with O'Leary up, in 2:10, and the horse performed in a nice way.

Harness & Brossman's good mare, Imp, who is quite ready for her effort tomorrow, trotted and cantered.

Bangle has received a steady preparation for the handicap. He has worked a mile on the Sheepshead track and is fit. He was breezed a half in :51 today.

Ben Holladay was taken on the road for cantering work."

THE BOOKIES AT 'FRISCO.

Concerning the results of the bookmakers' and outside speculators' flirtations with Dame Fortune during the San Francisco racing season, the San Francisco Chronicle of Monday says:

"From a bookmaker's point of view the race meeting which came to a close Saturday has been the most disastrous on record in California. The layers of odds have usually made big money for several seasons, but this has not been the case for the past two seasons. The bookies who made expenses this year were not very numerous. It takes $1,050 a week to operate a book, which means that the bookmaker must really win more than $4,000 a month to make expenses alone. This figures $25,000 for six months.

"Undoubtedly the biggest loser was the Stuyvesant Club, a book operated by John Coleman. The losses of this book amounted to $25,000. During his few months' stay here Riley Granman must have dropped fully $15,000. Hugh Jones and Tom Costigan had a very tempestuous season, and their experience in booking must have cost them $10,000. M. Getz was credited with winning $10,000 on the outside, which he lost in two ventures at booking. Jack Newman lost $5,000 on the block, but he got most of this amount back by speculating on the outside. "Kid" Weller, who was heralded as a "plunger," was reported to have lost $20,000, but this sum was greatly out of line, as he did not have that much money to his name. At the outside he probably lost $7,000. Jack Atkins dropped a couple of bank rolls for his backers, amounting in all to perhaps $8,000. W. Applegate toyed with the chalk and chamois for several weeks, which luxury cost him $5,000. Maxey Blumenthal lost a like amount before he left for the east. Eddie Gaines got rid of $3,000 booking, while P. Froelich lost a bank roll of $5,000 the first month he was out here. Paul Ridley 'blew in' $7,500 while booking. It cost John Fay of Cincinnati $5,000 to find out that it was a hard game out here."

"Barney Schreiber had tough luck and must have gone away $10,000 behind. Herman Hoffman stayed out the season. He had a losing streak and was $14,000 to the bad at one time, but he pluckily stayed with the game and won $10,000 back. John O'Neill did not play in his usual luck and returned before the season was over fully $6,000 loser. A month ago Gus Blum was $3,000 loser, but he won steadily the past three weeks and managed to quit a slight winner. Jackman, who was backed up by George Rose, lost one bank roll of $5,000.

"The winners were few and far between. Joe Rose again quit the biggest winner on the season. He doubtless won $20,000. Pete Reilly retired $18,000 ahead. Bill Beverly is credited with cleaning up $7,200. John Humphreys, Phil Howell and P. Archibald won from $1,000 to $4,000. George Rose won several thousand dollars booking, but the dollar book privilege was a losing proposition and he could not have made anything on the season. Frank Eckert only booked a month, but he must have won a couple of thousand.

"Among the horsemen and speculators Tom Woodford, C. Dwyer, 'Plunger' Hill, Abe Stein, T. Hackenberg, Charles Quinn and Fred Cowen all fared badly. Ed Corrigan had a most successful betting season, an unusual experience for him. He won perhaps $10,000. Tom Ryan is reckoned to have cleaned up $15,000 in coups with his horses, while P. Ryan perhaps won $8,000. The local bettors, P. McMahon and John Lyons, are credited with substantial winnings."

WINNERS OF THE BELMONT.

The Belmont Stakes, won Thursday by Jean Beraud, is one of the oldest fixtures of the American turf. In the course of its existence the names of many of the greatest racers known to our turf history, have been inscribed in its honorable list of winners. In the year of its institution it was carried off by Ruthless, one of the greatest mares that ever carried colors. Since then such grand racehorses as Harry Bassett, Kingfisher, Springbok, Duke of Magenta, Spendthrift, George Kinney, Inspector B., Hanover, Henry of Navarre and Bowling Brook, all jewels of the first water, have in their years of three-year-old glory won the Belmont. Originally it was a Jerome Park stake and was run over the famous old saddle-bags track until its abandonment, when along with the Withers, Ladies and other Jerome Park stakes, its running was transferred to Morris Park. When instituted its distance was a mile and five furlongs. This was cut down in 1874 to a mile and a half, which, in 1890, was further reduced to a mile and a quarter and in 1893 to a mile and an eighth. In 1895 the distance was raised to a mile and a quarter and in 1896 to a mile and three-eighths where it remains. The list of its winners given below will recall to old timers half forgotten memories of the great turf stars of the last thirty years.

CORSINI'S CASE.

Why Mr. Corrigan's Corsini did not start for the Latonia Derby was thus detailed by the Enquirer of Wednesday:

"The absence from the Derby field of Ed Corrigan's colt Corsini, the contender in the Kentucky Derby, and the winner of the Clark stakes, was the source of much regret to the large crowd, who had counted on seeing his mettle tried in the local track's big event, but there was no one in that big crowd that so much regretted the enforced withdrawal of the son of Riley as did Pat Dunne, who has had the colt in charge since he was brought from California.

"Mr. Dunne was as much surprised as any one else to find, on his arrival from Louisville yesterday morning, that Corsini would not be in condition to start in the Derby. He had sent the son of Riley up here from Louisville Sunday, in charge of his foreman, and the colt left him in perfect order. He landed at Latonia all right, too, and showed nothing wrong after being breezed a mile in 1:50 Monday. Early yesterday morning, however, he showed signs of lameness, and it was then discovered that he had bowed a tendon. Mr. Dunne was then on his way to Latonia, and there was no chance to notify him of the mishap to the horse. It was not until he reached the track that he learned of the accident to Corsini. He thought that the colt's condition might not be sufficiently serious to keep him out of the race, and knowing that the public was desirous of seeing him race he did not conclude to ask to have the colt excused until 1 o'clock. Not knowing how serious the mishap to Mr. Corrigan's colt might prove to be, and naturally not wishing to take any great chances

FAVORITES OVERTHROWN.

Today is the finish at Lakeside, and Secretary Nathanson has made up a big card of six races. The track is in excellent condition and if no rain falls it will be faster than ever on the closing day.

The management expect a record breaking card and for an attraction will give a description of the Brooklyn Handicap. The race will be called from behind the old foreign book in the betting ring and also from the press stand.

The racing yesterday was one continuous round of surprises and six straight favorites were beaten.

Long-distance races always stir up interest, and the mile and a half event with Robert Bonner, Dr. Marks, Sunburst and Red Duchess as starters was no exception to the rule. Dr. Marks was looked upon as almost a sure winner and closed a stout favorite at 3 to 5. The heavy play was on him, but the hopeful public and small speculators played Robert Bonner and caused his price to drop a point from 5-1.

So far as a contest was concerned there was nothing to the race. Robert Bonner broke second but immediately went to the front, and leading by from six to eight lengths the entire journey, won running away. Brown had Robert Bonner in the center of the track all the way and took the longest route, but the horse was so much the best that this disadvantage cut no figure. The win was a very popular one and aroused much enthusiasm.

During the entire afternoon there was but one close finish, and that came out of the fifth event and was a rousing one.

The race was at four and a half furlongs for two-year-olds and had eight starters. Only two of them, though, Unsightly and First Past, were given consideration, and the race proved to be strictly between them. The pair broke second and third respectively, and at once set out to kill each other off. The first quarter was run in :23 and the half in :49, but still the pair hung close together. They were both very tired at the end and when urged naturally wobbled. This caused a bumping match and prevented the boys from doing their best. Clay on Unsightly was on the outside and had the better of it and won the race by a neck. Many who supported First Past wondered why Nutt did not claim a foul, but the boy knew he was as much to blame as Clay was and showed his common sense by not doing so.

W. R. Griffin sprung a speedy two-year-old filly in the first race. Its name is Zaza and is by Bramble—Mary Conroy. This filly got away with the track and smothered her field for speed, winning pulled up in :49 flat. This was a very good performance considering the strong wind that was blowing and the way the track was cut up.

Necedah surprised everyone, and at 12 to 1 won the second race in an impressive way. She was last of a field of eight entering the back stretch and made up a lot of ground.

The third race was an easy thing for Charmante and Free Hand had no trouble in landing the sixth event.

Jockey Vitatoo will probably sign a contract to ride for Tom Barrett today. The boy has been riding in good form while at Lakeside and if he becomes connected with a good stable like Mr. Barrett's, where he will be properly looked after, he will have a chance to improve and get his pick of the lightweight mounts at Harlem. Barrett has over twenty horses in his string, mostly two-year-olds, and as Vitatoo is a good boy at the post he will be a useful addition to the stable.

CORSINI'S CASE.

with him, he reluctantly asked to have the colt excused.

"Ed Corrigan, the owner of Corsini, has notified Secretary Hopper that he will come to Latonia in a few days with half a dozen horses, when, of course, he himself will take charge of Corsini. Pat Dunne, who has had charge of that colt, said yesterday that it cannot be determined for a few days how serious the injury to him is. His foreman did not think that it would prove serious, but he himself was of a different opinion. It is possible, though, Mr.
Dunne stated, that the son of Riley will round to all right and be in condition to go in the other big event for three-year-olds, the Himyar.
If such should be the case the conditions will be pretty much the same here as they were at Louisville. Manuel, after beating Corsini in the Derby, went wrong and could not meet the Corrigan colt in the Clark. Prince McClurg and Corsini cannot meet in the Himyar, even if the son of Riley is able to start in it, as the Derby winner is not engaged in the Himyar."

Winner—Br. f, by Bramble—Mary Conroy.
Post 6 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second cleverly; third and fourth driving. Zaza was much the best and spread-eagled her field. She has phenomenal speed and judging from this race can go on. Huronia ran a good race. She was all tangled up at the start and in a pocket until the stretch was reached. She then finished strongly. The same comment applies to Miss Fee. Laura G. G. was heavily played, but ran a bad race. She acted green at the post and swerved from one side to the other in the stretch. This filly works well, but seems afraid of other horses and will not extend herself in a race. Eria d'Or has speed. Mark her. She is a good looker and can win in a maiden race.
Scratched—12150 Wasanta, 101.
Overweights—Miss Fee, 3 pounds.

Winner—Ch. m, by Sir Dixon—Retreat.
Off at first break to a good start. Won easily; second, third and fourth were under keen pressure. Necedah's win was a strong form reversal. She ran far above her recent mark and ran a good race, making up a lot of ground from the head of the backstretch home. Locust Blossom ran to her mark. Donna Rita did not. The latter seems to be stale and of no present account. She ran in blinkers today. There was no strong pace the first part of the race. Alma Glyn was jumped on and injured. Cyril stopped to a walk at the finish. It was a bad race.
Scratched—(12239) Foncliff, 110; 12130 Onalaska, 112.
Corrected weights—Donna Rita, 107.
Necedah, place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Locust Blossom, place, 8 to 5; show 4 to 5. Clara Meyer, show, evens. Donna Rita, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Cyril, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Br. f, by King Eric—Cleopatra.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second whipped out; third and fourth driving hard. Charmante had an easy thing of it. She was under restraint in behind Hop Scotch to the head of the stretch and then passed him as though he was tied. The filly could have won off by herself had Gray chosen. Fintan stopped on the far turn but came again at the end. Marco Polo was off on the outside and obliged to take the long route. He is a hard-luck horse. Hop Scotch was off flying and had no excuses. He is simply a rank quitter.
Scratched—12216 Flirtation, 102.
Overweights—Bilbo, 2 pounds.

Winner—Ch. g, by Rossington—Belle of Nantura.
Off at first break to a good start. Won under a double pull; second and third whipped out. Robert Bonner had speed to loan, and ran by far the best race. Brown had him out in the middle of the track all the way and lost considerable ground on every turn. The horse tried to run out at the head of the stretch and the boy had to whip him over the head to keep him in. This race was a vast improvement over Bonner's last. Then he stopped before going a mile. Dr. Marks could never get up. He made a strong bid on the stretch turn but died away again. Sunburst ran a fair race. The winner was entered for $300 and run up to $600 by S. S. Bender. His owner retained him for $605.
Robert Bonner, place, evens. Dr. Marks, place, out. Sunburst, place, 1 to 3.

Winner—Br. f, by Pursebearer—Hira Villa.
Off at first break to a poor start. Won in a long, hard drive of two; third eased up. It was a fighting finish with much bumping all through the stretch. First Past was the best, but was probably a trifle short and hung at the end. It would be hard to tell which caused the bumping through the stretch, and as neither of the boys complained, the judges overlooked it. Clay rode a powerful finish on the winner. Georgetown II. ran an excellent race, and, barring accidents, would probably have won. McKickie's stirrup strap broke in the stretch, and he was obliged to pull the colt up. Indian was sharply cut off at the start. Ravenswood suffered from the same cause on the stretch turn.
Scratched—(12240) Man of Honor, 108.

Winner—B. f, by Russell—Fresco.
Post 12 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; The next three were driving. Free Hand had the most speed of the party and was the best. She is a useful filly. Pauline J. was right there all the way and ran a good, honest race. J. T. ran his race. So did Rosavannah. The latter stumbled and almost went down at the start. But for this she would have at least been third and might have given the winner an argument. Eva Wilson ran a vile race. She suffered though from bad handling. Clay got away well but instead of going on about his business he restrained the filly and the consequence was he got sharply shut off at the half mile ground.

Free Hand, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Pauline J., place 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. J. T., show, evens. Rosavannah, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Eva Wilson, place, 1 to 2; show, out.
